Community Reviews. Dog Sees God : Confessions of Teenage Blockhead is a dark comedy that follows the life of a teenage 'blockhead' called CB. All the characters, the events, and themes suggest that these characters are the characters of Charlie Brown, but all grown up. In my opinion this concept is brilliantly done.

In the unforgiving social sphere of high school, characters based on a classic cartoon learn self-acceptance as a means of survival. This relatable coming-of-age story is replete with present-day themes of sex, drugs and teenage angst ... sparked by the death of everyone's favorite cartoon dog. David Kocina directs a cast of CU Theatre & Dance Department's talented young performers.
