Batman: Inferno by Alexander C. Irvine

As other reviewers here have mentioned, "Inferno" takes place early in Batman's career. This allows Irvine to avoid some of the pitfalls of continuity-heavy storytelling: too many characters, confusing back stories, etc. I suggest any fan of the Dark Knight, casual or die-hard, give "Inferno" a read.

Batman Inferno

Batman: Inferno written by Alex Irvine, is a well developed story that allows readers to delve into the minds of both Batman and the joker while also introducing an all new super-villain arsonist known as Enfer who is unique to the story and is never before mentioned or seen.
