Leadership in the Tactical Operations Center – Junior Officer

The tactical operations center is the collective brain behind any battlefield operation. From headquarters at the battalion, up to a corps (and often higher), the TOC is a bustling network of Soldiers, computers, projectors and charts. It ' s where staff sections come together to issue orders and make battlefield decisions. It ' s almost a supercomputer of officers and NCOs working together to ...

BATTLE STAFF NCO - TOC/CP

A well-run TOC, the CALL paper says, doesn't have battle captains doing subordinate duties on a regular basis. The battle captain and XO have important, demanding leadership roles. Taking on little tasks that should be left to NCOs distracts from the big picture and can leave a battle captain too tired to function effectively.

Write Like a Leader - Write Like a Leader

The TOC/CP has two primary functions: • To track Soldiers and equipment during the battle to assist the leader in the command and control of the unit. • To serve as a data center that processes enemy and friendly information. The role of the battle staff is a critical component to achieve mission success in a counterinsurgency environment.
