DARKLANDS is the third novel in the Rhenwars series that is sort of an inversion of the Wheel of Time. The Rhenwars Saga is the story of a world where the forces of hell are worshiped by a quarter of the population and much of its countryside has been reduced to a Mordor-like hellhole. Opposing these forces are a bunch of magic-using sects and priesthoods who despise one another almost as much (if not more so) than the forces of hell.

M.L. Spencer's Darkmage was a real find! It inspired me to read all of her other Rhenwars novels and they were all wonderful, capturing imagination and giving it a very thrilling ride. DARKFALL is the grand finale of the Rhenwars Saga and it's nice to have a series which ends properly even if the ending is bittersweet. M.L. Spencer is one of the new voices in dark fantasy (which I use when talking non-pejoratively about grimdark fiction).
