Guided reading explained. Children will be divided into ability groups, according to their reading levels. The teacher will choose a set of books for the group she or he is reading with, that is appropriate to their level. Generally, teachers need to think about two things when carrying out a guided reading session: decoding and comprehension.

Guided Reading Ks1

Our KS1 guided reading is hard so our approach changed. As a teacher we model good reading with meaning, then the children read their own books with focus questions on the board and then the children reflect. As I also agree it is not enough time to get into something.
