[Review] "Hong Kong Noir" by Akin Jeje | Cha

Hong Kong Noir...will surely raise the hackles of genre purists much as Hong Kong movies of the 1980s and '90s initially did with filmgoers abroad ... The bones of this collection range from sturdy to creaking, but the best of its stories have the qualities of Hong Kong's best films: first, exotic settings that shape and sometimes define the narrative, and second, an ongoing search for territorial identity
