I'm a teacher and teacher trainer at University of Westminster, in central London. I'm also - along with Andrew Walkley - the co-author of two five-level General English series, OUTCOMES and INNOVATIONS, both of which are published by National Geographic Learning. I've been teaching since 1993, when I did my CTEFLA at Westminster College. I...

Hugh Dellar about Native and non-Native English Speaking Teachers
Hugh Dellar, former Celta tutor, teacher, teacher trainer, coursebook writer, and presenter, recently wrote an impassioned and typically strident critique of Celta and courses of its ilk in the aftermath of what many are seeing as a seminal plenary talk by Silvana Richardson at IATEFL 2016 on the topic of native speaker vs. non-native speaker ...

Introduction In Part 2, I'll look at Dellar's view of language and how, as a teacher trainer, he suggests implementing it. Language. Dellar could be expected to give special attention to his view of language, and to take extra care describing and explaining it, since he repeatedly claims that his rival view of language is the most important, the most distinguishing, feature of his whole ...
