Why We Revel In Others' 'Humiliation' | WBUR News

[Picador; 2011] by Kehan DeSousa. I haven't come across anything like Wayne Koestenbaum's Humiliation since I've left college, and I wonder if this is because non-fiction prose of this sort—introspective, questioning, intimate—rarely attracts much attention, bereft as it is of easy answers or exposition. Throughout the book, Koestenbaum's definition of humiliation remains ...
