Macaroni Boy

Macaroni Boy is one of those books which does have a storyline, but spends most of its time covering day-to-day occurrences, and whose storyline is a pretty small instance in somebody's life. A lot of this book talks about Mike's school troubles, his family's financial troubles (which is a theme that cannot be ignored in a Great Depression-era novel), and other such things.

6. Macaroni Frames. Seriously, how cute is this citrus frame? You can use wagon wheel macaroni to do limes or lemons and it would be just as adorable. Kids can still easily make this by using a round sponge to create the fruit and then glueing down the macaroni. This is an absolutely adorable craft and would be a great grandparent gift!
