Cultural landscapes and protected areas: Unfolding the ...

A natural landscape is the original landscape that exists before it is acted upon by human culture. The natural landscape and the cultural landscape are separate parts of the landscape. However, in the 21st century, landscapes that are totally untouched by human activity no longer exist, so that reference is sometimes now made to degrees of naturalness within a landscape. In Silent Spring Rachel Carson describes a roadside verge as it used to look: "Along the roads, laurel ...
