Me & My Journey | The Journey from Broken
Twenty years ago this September, I had paid off $400,000 of debt and was starting back at square 1. Here's what I learned on my journey to financial health.

My Journey From Palestine to Hollywood | HuffPost
My heart here is to share my journey as I continue to walk towards wholeness in Christ – something I believe each of us are doing day by day until we are in His presence and truly whole. A little about me...I'm married to my hubby, Erik, and together we have two awesome/ornery little boys – Malachi (12) and Isaiah (11).

From Broken to Free! My Journey of Self- discovery. – Pam ...
My journey has broken me I joined out of a drive, perhaps a naive understanding, that there was a shared conscience, a camaraderie, a desire to do the 'right thing'. I've been repaired; I've self-repaired; I've put sticking plasters on; I've sought longer term solutions; I've not been the same piece of porcelain that I started out as and I'm under no illusion that I never will be.

My Journey From Broke and Broken to Financial Health
I've already shared parts of my love journey here and there in my past 5 years of running PE. From my longstanding singlehood, to my past heartbreak, and to my recent sponsored experience at a dating agency, these are all part and parcel of my love journey.. But to give you guys a complete picture, up until I got attached to Ken, I was single for the most part of the first 28 years of my life.

My journey has broken me - For our Men
All while my nervous system never fully recovered, causing me to have to give up the one thing I felt I had left, which was my fitness, at least the intense training and heavy lifting that I loved. That brings you mostly up to date with me, sitting in the forest, tears streaming down my face wondering why everything seems to have to destroy me to move me.

MY STORY, MY JOURNEY, MY DREAM, MY PURPOSE
This morning, at 0945, our son, Ian David, was stillborn at our home. Although I knew this day was coming for over six weeks, and I had certainly spent much time preparing my heart for this moment, it was still incredibly hard to contain my grief when I held my son for the first time, and realized he would never hear me tell him that I loved him – that I would never hear his boyish voice ...

MY WHY. As a domestic violence survivor, I also became homeless in February 2008. It was a Friday after 5 PM and I had nowhere to go. I was devastated, shocked, and desperately trying to keep in control. I immediately collected myself to stay focused, because I knew if I didn't, I would lose my mental balance, about what I needed to do next.
