(Book, 2005) [WorldCat.org] Landon's debut is a strong, poignant fantasy about a shapeshifter on a quest to save her dying forest.
Syanthe's people, who change shape from human-like base into animals, live as magical tenders of a forest.
Because they once dared rebel against the King, they're tattooed with facial marks that will poison them if they stray.

Dena Landon | Kirkus Reviews Shapeshifter's Quest is a lovely fast read, and I enjoyed the characters and their magics considerably. Syanthe is a nicely brave and compassionate heroine, and the story flows briskly and coherently. It's only main flaw is that it rather lacks subtlety--a huge suspension of disbelief is required to swallow Jerel's appearance in Syanthe's life.
