Laurie Halse Anderson has scored another hit with Twisted. I am a huge fan of her book Speak and think that this book is just as good as that one. As a high school librarian I am always looking for well-written books where the protagonists are realistic and relatable. This book gives us both. Plus, I like it that the main character is a male.

Twisted

Twisted Laurie Halse Anderson Review by Alice Cary. March 2007 A note at the beginning of Twisted warns: This is not a book for children. Indeed it isn't, but it is a riveting book for high school students. In fact, Twisted is so compelling that I read well past midnight as some of the pivotal scenes unfolded. The heart of this novel is its ...
