-Meaning that all innocent Christian's will agree with the court (God) -These people (Proctor, Nurse, and Giles) aren't with the court and therefore are against God "But you must understand, sir, that a person is either with this court or he must be counted against it, there be no road between.

The Crucible Quotes
In The Crucible, the idea of goodness is a major theme. Almost every character is concerned with the concept of goodness, because their religion teaches them that the most important thing in life is how they will be judged by God after they die. They want to be found good, because being good will make them right with God.

With God in the Crucible, by Peter Storey | The Christian ...
The Salem of The Crucible is a theocracy, which means that God is supposed to be the ultimate leader, arbiter, and judge. In practice, however, the town's religious authorities do the governing. God needs men on earth to do his work of justice, and Hathorne, Danforth, Hale, and Parris are all part of that system.
